

Troop 29 PLC Meeting 8-9-2016 Notes

Patrol Leader Reports

Beavers

- low attendance
- planning November campout

Banana Turtles

- David and Gunner not showing up much
- 2 service projects planned: Auburn Heights bike stop, assisting at Cokesbury

Bears

- a few people haven't been showing up
- planning December campout during September

Thunderbirds

- attendance moderate
- close to finishing family life
- working on Honor Patrol

Spartans

- lots of absences
- completed one service project for Honor Patrol

Patrol Goals review

Spartans

- better communication, going poorly
- achieving Honor Patrol, going okay
- having a successful campout

Banana Turtles

- everyone responds to emails, going poorly
- completing Citizenship in the World, not yet started because of Honor Patrol
- achieving Honor Patrol, going well

Beavers

- more involvement, not well

First Years

- weekly update, going very well

Campout Itinerary

- 6:30 wakeup
- older Scouts canoe, then first years
- lunch
- first years run, then older Scouts
- first years bike, then older Scouts
- downtime
- dinner
- campfire
- sleep
- wakeup and pack up

Next Summer Camp

The options are Rodney, Resica Falls, or Yawgoog. Resica is yet to be scoped out. Details on Yawgoog will come from the Sykoras. The camp will be picked at October PLC.

Webelos Woods Stations for Patrols

Wise Guys - Raft and Water Compass
Thunderbirds - Signaling and Monkey Bridge
Bears - Rope Making and Survival Skills
Banana Turtles - Shelter Building

Miscellaneous

Upcoming Campout presentation was done last minute. For future reference, guys in charge must plan well in advance and attend meetings. There are many tools on the Troop website to aid development and planning.

Going forward, the SPL will email Monday night meeting agendas to Patrol Leaders on Sunday evening so there is time for planning.

Notes by Joe Hackman, Scribe