

Thunderbirds: attendance is good, one of first year is alternating between scouts and baseball(shawn mcdermann) donald is there sometimes, owen and danny are there every single time.spencer zabrinck and cj clanina is one of the first year scouts.
patrol advisers' advice seems to be good(claims). agenda is made every time. patrol members seem excited for future. cleaning a tank for service project cleaned up trails.

da bears: attendance is ok. william king quit. zachary england's attendance isn't good. weekly agendas are sorted and helpful.
jimmy is almost first class.

spartans: attendance is fine except david conongo, who didn't show up for like 4 weeks. agendas are very helpful. service project plan is trailwork and/or Delaware Humane association volunteer work(cleaning litter etc) for 3-6 hours.
proposal is to reduce the campout expense is $16, but it is rejected by PCL. new 2nd years michel presley and greg fleming.

wise guys: jacob will sometimes show up. patrick and kyle lank regularly show up. sean hoopes is very excited to be a part of patrol. andy, and shawn are also excited. honor patrol: lots of rank advancements soon. service projects are being thought about, but for now they are thinking about their advancements. maybe in a couple of weeks, they will start service projects.
andy and shawn will rank up soon.
matthew mattante is still scout rank. raymond show up all the time, and is enthusiastic, but he isn't sure about his rank status. best practices is enthusiasm by the kids showing up; they get done with everything on the agenda.

(rank username is :

greendonor: joey hackman and andrew sung don't show up often. best practices: flag is very good, and they claim that it is creative. it brings the patrol together. they plan to do the induction ceremony for the 2nd years during campout.
bruno
doesn't answer. matt bueseck is excited. building dollhouse for old people is being planned; Ronald Mcdonald house; charity foundation at downtown happy acres retirement home is where this dollhouse is being thought to be built(hershey, penn.)

hayden the chaplains aid needs to be doing more communication with others danny the quartermaster is doing very well librarian jacob robinson is seen to not do very much advocacy about the library books. only announced the library books 3 times in all of his 3 month term.

shawn brady didn't send the pics of the campout or the college for the presentation of the latest pics. he has pics for pancake breakfast. will be given a 2-week chance to redeem himself; if not, he will be fired.

tardiness of the scribe to the meetings; thought of passing out attendance sheets to the patrol leaders.
scribe will update the attendance sheets.

check marks will need to be made for each person, and it will need to be passed out.

beach grass planting: time of the planting not known yet. getting back to camp around 2. then games and activities and/or campfire will be held.

bagged lunches will be prepared.

Sprelunking: da bears are planning on making 2 tiers; one for cavers and non-cavers, but probably will not take place.

will hopefully plan a guest speaker who is a caver for the troop.

volunteers needed for pine wood derby.

old time canoes are on sale(very cheap) and have been spent on. $750 upon them. they are in excellent condition.

10 canoes.

conner's oyster camp proposal is denied, unless it is a patrol camping trip or a venture patrol trip.

charlie proposes that this patrol's june camping trip is on the day of father's day, so a lot of people will not come.

therefore, he wants to move it the weekend after.
